

Observations taken at 6 a. m. today, for previous 24 hours: Barometer 30.4 inches. Current temperature 48; maximum temperature 51; minimum temperature 44; mean temperature 48, which is 23 degrees above normal. Accumulated excess of temperature since January 1st, 53 degrees. Total precipitation from 6 a. m. to 6 a. m. trace. Accumulated deficiency of precipitation since January 1st, 32 inches.

FORECASTS TILL 6 P. M. TUESDAY.

Local forecast for Salt Lake City and vicinity:

Snow tonight and Tuesday, high northwest winds, much colder today. Forecast made at San Francisco for Utah:

Rain tonight and Tuesday, snow in mountains; high south winds.

WEATHER CONDITIONS.

The storm is now central over southern Idaho where the barometer reads 29.4 inches. Pressure is moderately high over the Mississippi valley. Precipitation has fallen over Washington, Oregon, California, Idaho, Utah, western Montana and north Idaho. San Francisco reports 1.34 inch during the past twenty-four hours. The wind reached a maximum velocity of forty miles from southwest at Modesto.

L. H. MURDOCH, Section Director.

TODAY'S TEMPERATURE.

10 a. m., 50; 12 noon, 52; 2 p. m., 52; 3 p. m., 49.

SEMI-WEEKLY

NEWS...

CIRCULATION TODAY,

20,600.

Circulation Jan. 1, 1899, 10,280.

To-day's Metals.

SILVER, per 100, 63.50

LEAD, $4.00

CASTING COPPER 15 3/4 cents a lb.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

Justice of the Peace Dana Smith of the Fifth precinct, who went into office today, has established his office on the fifth floor of the Commercial building, where he will hold court.

A new law firm has been formed between Attorneys Elmer B. Jones and Clarence W. Collins, both of whom have heretofore been associated with the legal firm of Jones & Schroeder.

The sudden downfall of rain and snow this morning was too much for the weary Willies on the chain gang, who, who were forced to discontinue their labor at the reservoir and return to the hall.

Police Officer Moroni Gillespie is now relieving in the fact that the yellow flag, which is used to designate the several weeks, has been taken down, and he is now permitted to return to his home.

A horse driven by a woman fell dead yesterday afternoon at the corner of State and Second South streets. The opinions as to the cause of the animal's sudden demise are various. The body was hauled to the city yard.

The Humane society will meet at the home of Dr. T. B. Beatty, 509 east First South street, at 8 o'clock this evening. Inasmuch as very important matters will be considered, a full attendance of members is expressly urged.

Prof. George H. Brimhall will lecture before the officers of the M. I. A. Wednesday evening, January 10th, in the fourteenth ward assembly hall. All M. I. A. workers are urged to be present. The general public are invited.

A rather serious break-down occurred last evening at the Highland Boys' smelter in the water connections and the pump, threatening a shut-down of the entire plant. Eight hundred feet of five-inch pipe and fittings were immediately conveyed from the city to the smelter by team with which the pipe was repaired and operations continued.

M. E. Mulvey returned yesterday from Pocatello, having been called home on business. He says that it is an assured fact that Salt Lake will have a new hotel, which will cost between $150,000 and $200,000. It will be a standard house and modern in every particular. Mr. Mulvey will go to New York soon to look over plans and models for the new hotel.

City warrants to the amount of $125,000 were redeemed last Saturday afternoon by City Treasurer Morris. Wells, Fargo & Co. held $60,000, and the National Bank of the Republic held $65,000. These payments reduced the city's overdraft with the banks to about $6,000, which the city treasurer says will be paid in a few days, thus squaring the city's accounts with the banks and giving it a fresh start.

The funeral of Mrs. Ida M. Blazer, wife of J. B. Blazer, formerly of this city but now of Wichita, was held at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. J. B. Blazer, 509 east First South street, at 10 o'clock yesterday afternoon. A good attendance of friends and relatives were present. Rev. W. H. Bagby of the Central Christian church conducted the services. There were numerous floral offerings and the interment occurred at Mt. Olivet. The remains were brought here from Kansas by the bereaved husband.

William Edwin Openshaw, by his guardian, Matilda O. Young, commenced suit Saturday afternoon in the district court against John Halpin to recover a mortgage of $100, which the plaintiff alleges was given on certain real estate to secure a loan. He further sets up that he has tendered to the defendant the full amount of the note and interest and requested that the mortgage be cancelled, which defendant has refused to do and still retains the note and mortgage.

The old Spanish canon sent here by Major R. W. Young from Manila, and which has been stationed in front of the city and county building for the past year or more, badly needs attention from those whose duty it is to look after the trophy. The muzzle of the gun had been lowered as far as possible, and the elevating screw has been so disarranged that the barrel of the weapon cannot be moved. One spoke in the wheels has been broken out, and the woodwork is being whitewashed.

Last evening the Salt Lake Aerie No. 67, order of Eagles, elected the following officers for the ensuing year: Worthy past president, Louis Brodie; worthy president, Benjamin Johnson; worthy vice president, C. D. Coffey; worthy chairman, B. W. La Fave; worthy secretary, Alexander S. Fowler; worthy treasurer, Louis Smith; worthy recorder, Samuel Smith; inside guardian, Charles Zeigler; outside guardian, Joseph G. Coffey; worthy trustee, David Wilson; John J. Riley and Isaac Nielsen, aerial physician, Dr. Alvah Lewis.

Several days ago the "News" published a statement from A. D. Markel, denying the report which appeared in the morning papers, of Mr. Markel's resignation. In relation to Mr. Markel's position Mr. Levy, president of the association, now comes out with a statement denying Mr. Markel's resignation. Mr. Levy declares that $1,500 has been subscribed by members of the congregation for the erection of a synagogue, that there is no ill feeling over the matter, and also says that the members because of the resignation of Mr. Markel, who was president of the association, did not withdraw from the congregation.

The infant daughter of Matthew and Rosina Hiller, aged 2, died at the residence of her grandparents, Judge G. C. Hiller, of Montpelier, Idaho, after an illness of ten days. The child's mother, Mrs. Hiller, who is now in the hospital, says that the child died at ten days old. Since the death of the mother the grandparents have kindly cared for the little one. The father of the babe went to Montpelier thinking to find her recovering, but to his sorrow arrived to find the child dead. A wide circle of friends and sympathizers were gathered at the funeral, which was held at Montpelier on the 3rd inst. The body was taken to the cemetery and interred in the family vault.

Manager Cutler of the Utah Sugar company, is in town today. He states that the farmers are feeling jubilant over the present storm, and also says that the snow in the mountains have been largely added to during the past few days, even though there had been little snow on the valleys. As regards the new auxiliary plant near Provo, he states that the matter is practically settled. It only remains for the farmers of that locality to meet their part of the agreement, which calls for a pledge of 1,200 acres to be planted in beets, and for the raising of the amount necessary for the site, water rights, etc. He thinks there is little doubt of the farmers being successful, and that the plant will be in operation next year.

A bad accident was narrowly averted last Saturday on the Waterloo car line, the particulars of which are as follows: A bad loaded an upturn car at Fifth South and Fifth East streets and rode on the front platform until reaching the intersection of the two streets, where it was stopped by a car. The car, which was loaded with passengers, was stopped by a car. The car, which was loaded with passengers, was stopped by a car. The car, which was loaded with passengers, was stopped by a car.

Save your money, and when you get a dollar deposit with Zion's Savings Bank and Trust company, you will receive a dollar. LORENZO SNOW, President. GEORGE M. CANNON, Cashier. UTAH COMMERCIAL AND SAVINGS BANK. Interest paid on savings. W. F. Armstrong, Cashier. P. W. Madsen, Vice president. J. E. Carr, Cashier.

UTAH. Castle Gate, Sunnyside and Clear Creek-Lump, $5.00 per ton. Winter Quarters Lump and all nut coal, $4.75 per ton. Anthracite all sizes, $5.50 per ton. 75 south 300 west, $4.00.

D. J. SHARP, Agent.

Z. C. M. I. GREAT BARGAIN SALE. Of Musical Instruments. Three days. Commencing Monday, Jan. 7.

OBSEQUES OF CHAS. NAPPER. A Most Esteemed Citizen Goes to His Rest.

The funeral services over the remains of the late Charles Napper, formerly of Birmingham, England, where he resided for many years, were held at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. J. B. Napper, 509 east First South street, at 2 p. m. Large numbers of the friends of the deceased crowded the parlors and adjacent rooms and many had to remain outside the house. The casket was adorned with a mass of beautiful flowers and floral emblems were distributed about the place.

The services were conducted by Elder Oliver Hodgson, Snuggs from the Third ward choir, led by Brother Carlton, rendered appropriate music. The speakers were: Jones Thatcher, Charles W. Peterson and John Henry Smith each of whom rendered a fitting tribute of love and respect for the deceased. The services were held in the presence of a large number of friends and relatives, who were all deeply moved by the loss of the deceased.

Exhortations to attend to such ordinances as are necessary to secure the full blessings of celestial glory were given by Elder Cyrus H. Gifford, who presided for many years over a branch of the Church, were held at the family residence, 23 East Seventh street, on Sunday, at 2 p. m. Large numbers of the friends of the deceased crowded the parlors and adjacent rooms and many had to remain outside the house. The casket was adorned with a mass of beautiful flowers and floral emblems were distributed about the place.

The services were conducted by Elder Oliver Hodgson, Snuggs from the Third ward choir, led by Brother Carlton, rendered appropriate music. The speakers were: Jones Thatcher, Charles W. Peterson and John Henry Smith each of whom rendered a fitting tribute of love and respect for the deceased. The services were held in the presence of a large number of friends and relatives, who were all deeply moved by the loss of the deceased.

Exhortations to attend to such ordinances as are necessary to secure the full blessings of celestial glory were given by Elder Cyrus H. Gifford, who presided for many years over a branch of the Church, were held at the family residence, 23 East Seventh street, on Sunday, at 2 p. m. Large numbers of the friends of the deceased crowded the parlors and adjacent rooms and many had to remain outside the house. The casket was adorned with a mass of beautiful flowers and floral emblems were distributed about the place.

The services were conducted by Elder Oliver Hodgson, Snuggs from the Third ward choir, led by Brother Carlton, rendered appropriate music. The speakers were: Jones Thatcher, Charles W. Peterson and John Henry Smith each of whom rendered a fitting tribute of love and respect for the deceased. The services were held in the presence of a large number of friends and relatives, who were all deeply moved by the loss of the deceased.

Exhortations to attend to such ordinances as are necessary to secure the full blessings of celestial glory were given by Elder Cyrus H. Gifford, who presided for many years over a branch of the Church, were held at the family residence, 23 East Seventh street, on Sunday, at 2 p. m. Large numbers of the friends of the deceased crowded the parlors and adjacent rooms and many had to remain outside the house. The casket was adorned with a mass of beautiful flowers and floral emblems were distributed about the place.

The services were conducted by Elder Oliver Hodgson, Snuggs from the Third ward choir, led by Brother Carlton, rendered appropriate music. The speakers were: Jones Thatcher, Charles W. Peterson and John Henry Smith each of whom rendered a fitting tribute of love and respect for the deceased. The services were held in the presence of a large number of friends and relatives, who were all deeply moved by the loss of the deceased.

Exhortations to attend to such ordinances as are necessary to secure the full blessings of celestial glory were given by Elder Cyrus H. Gifford, who presided for many years over a branch of the Church, were held at the family residence, 23 East Seventh street, on Sunday, at 2 p. m. Large numbers of the friends of the deceased crowded the parlors and adjacent rooms and many had to remain outside the house. The casket was adorned with a mass of beautiful flowers and floral emblems were distributed about the place.

The services were conducted by Elder Oliver Hodgson, Snuggs from the Third ward choir, led by Brother Carlton, rendered appropriate music. The speakers were: Jones Thatcher, Charles W. Peterson and John Henry Smith each of whom rendered a fitting tribute of love and respect for the deceased. The services were held in the presence of a large number of friends and relatives, who were all deeply moved by the loss of the deceased.

Exhortations to attend to such ordinances as are necessary to secure the full blessings of celestial glory were given by Elder Cyrus H. Gifford, who presided for many years over a branch of the Church, were held at the family residence, 23 East Seventh street, on Sunday, at 2 p. m. Large numbers of the friends of the deceased crowded the parlors and adjacent rooms and many had to remain outside the house. The casket was adorned with a mass of beautiful flowers and floral emblems were distributed about the place.

The services were conducted by Elder Oliver Hodgson, Snuggs from the Third ward choir, led by Brother Carlton, rendered appropriate music. The speakers were: Jones Thatcher, Charles W. Peterson and John Henry Smith each of whom rendered a fitting tribute of love and respect for the deceased. The services were held in the presence of a large number of friends and relatives, who were all deeply moved by the loss of the deceased.

Exhortations to attend to such ordinances as are necessary to secure the full blessings of celestial glory were given by Elder Cyrus H. Gifford, who presided for many years over a branch of the Church, were held at the family residence, 23 East Seventh street, on Sunday, at 2 p. m. Large numbers of the friends of the deceased crowded the parlors and adjacent rooms and many had to remain outside the house. The casket was adorned with a mass of beautiful flowers and floral emblems were distributed about the place.

The services were conducted by Elder Oliver Hodgson, Snuggs from the Third ward choir, led by Brother Carlton, rendered appropriate music. The speakers were: Jones Thatcher, Charles W. Peterson and John Henry Smith each of whom rendered a fitting tribute of love and respect for the deceased. The services were held in the presence of a large number of friends and relatives, who were all deeply moved by the loss of the deceased.

Exhortations to attend to such ordinances as are necessary to secure the full blessings of celestial glory were given by Elder Cyrus H. Gifford, who presided for many years over a branch of the Church, were held at the family residence, 23 East Seventh street, on Sunday, at 2 p. m. Large numbers of the friends of the deceased crowded the parlors and adjacent rooms and many had to remain outside the house. The casket was adorned with a mass of beautiful flowers and floral emblems were distributed about the place.

The services were conducted by Elder Oliver Hodgson, Snuggs from the Third ward choir, led by Brother Carlton, rendered appropriate music. The speakers were: Jones Thatcher, Charles W. Peterson and John Henry Smith each of whom rendered a fitting tribute of love and respect for the deceased. The services were held in the presence of a large number of friends and relatives, who were all deeply moved by the loss of the deceased.

Exhortations to attend to such ordinances as are necessary to secure the full blessings of celestial glory were given by Elder Cyrus H. Gifford, who presided for many years over a branch of the Church, were held at the family residence, 23 East Seventh street, on Sunday, at 2 p. m. Large numbers of the friends of the deceased crowded the parlors and adjacent rooms and many had to remain outside the house. The casket was adorned with a mass of beautiful flowers and floral emblems were distributed about the place.

The services were conducted by Elder Oliver Hodgson, Snuggs from the Third ward choir, led by Brother Carlton, rendered appropriate music. The speakers were: Jones Thatcher, Charles W. Peterson and John Henry Smith each of whom rendered a fitting tribute of love and respect for the deceased. The services were held in the presence of a large number of friends and relatives, who were all deeply moved by the loss of the deceased.

Exhortations to attend to such ordinances as are necessary to secure the full blessings of celestial glory were given by Elder Cyrus H. Gifford, who presided for many years over a branch of the Church, were held at the family residence, 23 East Seventh street, on Sunday, at 2 p. m. Large numbers of the friends of the deceased crowded the parlors and adjacent rooms and many had to remain outside the house. The casket was adorned with a mass of beautiful flowers and floral emblems were distributed about the place.

The services were conducted by Elder Oliver Hodgson, Snuggs from the Third ward choir, led by Brother Carlton, rendered appropriate music. The speakers were: Jones Thatcher, Charles W. Peterson and John Henry Smith each of whom rendered a fitting tribute of love and respect for the deceased. The services were held in the presence of a large number of friends and relatives, who were all deeply moved by the loss of the deceased.

Exhortations to attend to such ordinances as are necessary to secure the full blessings of celestial glory were given by Elder Cyrus H. Gifford, who presided for many years over a branch of the Church, were held at the family residence, 23 East Seventh street, on Sunday, at 2 p. m. Large numbers of the friends of the deceased crowded the parlors and adjacent rooms and many had to remain outside the house. The casket was adorned with a mass of beautiful flowers and floral emblems were distributed about the place.

The services were conducted by Elder Oliver Hodgson, Snuggs from the Third ward choir, led by Brother Carlton, rendered appropriate music. The speakers were: Jones Thatcher, Charles W. Peterson and John Henry Smith each of whom rendered a fitting tribute of love and respect for the deceased. The services were held in the presence of a large number of friends and relatives, who were all deeply moved by the loss of the deceased.

Exhortations to attend to such ordinances as are necessary to secure the full blessings of celestial glory were given by Elder Cyrus H. Gifford, who presided for many years over a branch of the Church, were held at the family residence, 23 East Seventh street, on Sunday, at 2 p. m. Large numbers of the friends of the deceased crowded the parlors and adjacent rooms and many had to remain outside the house. The casket was adorned with a mass of beautiful flowers and floral emblems were distributed about the place.

The services were conducted by Elder Oliver Hodgson, Snuggs from the Third ward choir, led by Brother Carlton, rendered appropriate music. The speakers were: Jones Thatcher, Charles W. Peterson and John Henry Smith each of whom rendered a fitting tribute of love and respect for the deceased. The services were held in the presence of a large number of friends and relatives, who were all deeply moved by the loss of the deceased.

Exhortations to attend to such ordinances as are necessary to secure the full blessings of celestial glory were given by Elder Cyrus H. Gifford, who presided for many years over a branch of the Church, were held at the family residence, 23 East Seventh street, on Sunday, at 2 p. m. Large numbers of the friends of the deceased crowded the parlors and adjacent rooms and many had to remain outside the house. The casket was adorned with a mass of beautiful flowers and floral emblems were distributed about the place.

The services were conducted by Elder Oliver Hodgson, Snuggs from the Third ward choir, led by Brother Carlton, rendered appropriate music. The speakers were: Jones Thatcher, Charles W. Peterson and John Henry Smith each of whom rendered a fitting tribute of love and respect for the deceased. The services were held in the presence of a large number of friends and relatives, who were all deeply moved by the loss of the deceased.

Exhortations to attend to such ordinances as are necessary to secure the full blessings of celestial glory were given by Elder Cyrus H. Gifford, who presided for many years over a branch of the Church, were held at the family residence, 23 East Seventh street, on Sunday, at 2 p. m. Large numbers of the friends of the deceased crowded the parlors and adjacent rooms and many had to remain outside the house. The casket was adorned with a mass of beautiful flowers and floral emblems were distributed about the place.

The services were conducted by Elder Oliver Hodgson, Snuggs from the Third ward choir, led by Brother Carlton, rendered appropriate music. The speakers were: Jones Thatcher, Charles W. Peterson and John Henry Smith each of whom rendered a fitting tribute of love and respect for the deceased. The services were held in the presence of a large number of friends and relatives, who were all deeply moved by the loss of the deceased.

Exhortations to attend to such ordinances as are necessary to secure the full blessings of celestial glory were given by Elder Cyrus H. Gifford, who presided for many years over a branch of the Church, were held at the family residence, 23 East Seventh street, on Sunday, at 2 p. m. Large numbers of the friends of the deceased crowded the parlors and adjacent rooms and many had to remain outside the house. The casket was adorned with a mass of beautiful flowers and floral emblems were distributed about the place.

The services were conducted by Elder Oliver Hodgson, Snuggs from the Third ward choir, led by Brother Carlton, rendered appropriate music. The speakers were: Jones Thatcher, Charles W. Peterson and John Henry Smith each of whom rendered a fitting tribute of love and respect for the deceased. The services were held in the presence of a large number of friends and relatives, who were all deeply moved by the loss of the deceased.

Exhortations to attend to such ordinances as are necessary to secure the full blessings of celestial glory were given by Elder Cyrus H. Gifford, who presided for many years over a branch of the Church, were held at the family residence, 23 East Seventh street, on Sunday, at 2 p. m. Large numbers of the friends of the deceased crowded the parlors and adjacent rooms and many had to remain outside the house. The casket was adorned with a mass of beautiful flowers and floral emblems were distributed about the place.

The services were conducted by Elder Oliver Hodgson, Snuggs from the Third ward choir, led by Brother Carlton, rendered appropriate music. The speakers were: Jones Thatcher, Charles W. Peterson and John Henry Smith each of whom rendered a fitting tribute of love and respect for the deceased. The services were held in the presence of a large number of friends and relatives, who were all deeply moved by the loss of the deceased.

Exhortations to attend to such ordinances as are necessary to secure the full blessings of celestial glory were given by Elder Cyrus H. Gifford, who presided for many years over a branch of the Church, were held at the family residence, 23 East Seventh street, on Sunday, at 2 p. m. Large numbers of the friends of the deceased crowded the parlors and adjacent rooms and many had to remain outside the house. The casket was adorned with a mass of beautiful flowers and floral emblems were distributed about the place.

The services were conducted by Elder Oliver Hodgson, Snuggs from the Third ward choir, led by Brother Carlton, rendered appropriate music. The speakers were: Jones Thatcher, Charles W. Peterson and John Henry Smith each of whom rendered a fitting tribute of love and respect for the deceased. The services were held in the presence of a large number of friends and relatives, who were all deeply moved by the loss of the deceased.

Exhortations to attend to such ordinances as are necessary to secure the full blessings of celestial glory were given by Elder Cyrus H. Gifford, who presided for many years over a branch of the Church, were held at the family residence, 23 East Seventh street, on Sunday, at 2 p. m. Large numbers of the friends of the deceased crowded the parlors and adjacent rooms and many had to remain outside the house. The casket was adorned with a mass of beautiful flowers and floral emblems were distributed about the place.

The services were conducted by Elder Oliver Hodgson, Snuggs from the Third ward choir, led by Brother Carlton, rendered appropriate music. The speakers were: Jones Thatcher, Charles W. Peterson and John Henry Smith each of whom rendered a fitting tribute of love and respect for the deceased. The services were held in the presence of a large number of friends and relatives, who were all deeply moved by the loss of the deceased.

Exhortations to attend to such ordinances as are necessary to secure the full blessings of celestial glory were given by Elder Cyrus H. Gifford, who presided for many years over a branch of the Church, were held at the family residence, 23 East Seventh street, on Sunday, at 2 p. m. Large numbers of the friends of the deceased crowded the parlors and adjacent rooms and many had to remain outside the house. The casket was adorned with a mass of beautiful flowers and floral emblems were distributed about the place.

The services were conducted by Elder Oliver Hodgson, Snuggs from the Third ward choir, led by Brother Carlton, rendered appropriate music. The speakers were: Jones Thatcher, Charles W. Peterson and John Henry Smith each of whom rendered a fitting tribute of love and respect for the deceased. The services were held in the presence of a large number of friends and relatives, who were all deeply moved by the loss of the deceased.

Exhortations to attend to such ordinances as are necessary to secure the full blessings of celestial glory were given by Elder Cyrus H. Gifford, who presided for many years over a branch of the Church, were held at the family residence, 23 East Seventh street, on Sunday, at 2 p. m. Large numbers of the friends of the deceased crowded the parlors and adjacent rooms and many had to remain outside the house. The casket was adorned with a mass of beautiful flowers and floral emblems were distributed about the place.

The services were conducted by Elder Oliver Hodgson, Snuggs from the Third ward choir, led by Brother Carlton, rendered appropriate music. The speakers were: Jones Thatcher, Charles W. Peterson and John Henry Smith each of whom rendered a fitting tribute of love and respect for the deceased. The services were held in the presence of a large number of friends and relatives, who were all deeply moved by the loss of the deceased.

Exhortations to attend to such ordinances as are necessary to secure the full blessings of celestial glory were given by Elder Cyrus H. Gifford, who presided for many years over a branch of the Church, were held at the family residence, 23 East Seventh street, on Sunday, at 2 p. m. Large numbers of the friends of the deceased crowded the parlors and adjacent rooms and many had to remain outside the house. The casket was adorned with a mass of beautiful flowers and floral emblems were distributed about the place.

The services were conducted by Elder Oliver Hodgson, Snuggs from the Third ward choir, led by Brother Carlton, rendered appropriate music. The speakers were: Jones Thatcher, Charles W. Peterson and John Henry Smith each of whom rendered a fitting tribute of love and respect for the deceased. The services were held in the presence of a large number of friends and relatives, who were all deeply moved by the loss of the deceased.

Exhortations to attend to such ordinances as are necessary to secure the full blessings of celestial glory were given by Elder Cyrus H. Gifford, who presided for many years over a branch of the Church, were held at the family residence, 23 East Seventh street, on Sunday, at 2 p. m. Large numbers of the friends of the deceased crowded the parlors and adjacent rooms and many had to remain outside the house. The casket was adorned with a mass of beautiful flowers and floral emblems were distributed about the place.

The services were conducted by Elder Oliver Hodgson, Snuggs from the Third ward choir, led by Brother Carlton, rendered appropriate music. The speakers were: Jones Thatcher, Charles W. Peterson and John Henry Smith each of whom rendered a fitting tribute of love and respect for the deceased. The services were held in the presence of a large number of friends and relatives, who were all deeply moved by the loss of the deceased.

Exhortations to attend to such ordinances as are necessary to secure the full blessings of celestial glory were given by Elder Cyrus H. Gifford, who presided for many years over a branch of the Church, were held at the family residence, 23 East Seventh street, on Sunday, at 2 p. m. Large numbers of the friends of the deceased crowded the parlors and adjacent rooms and many had to remain outside the house. The casket was adorned with a mass of beautiful flowers and floral emblems were distributed about the place.

The services were conducted by Elder Oliver Hodgson, Snuggs from the Third ward choir, led by Brother Carlton, rendered appropriate music. The speakers were: Jones Thatcher, Charles W. Peterson and John Henry Smith each of whom rendered a fitting tribute of love and respect for the deceased. The services were held in the presence of a large number of friends and relatives, who were all deeply moved by the loss of the deceased.

GOV. WELLS AGAIN INAUGURATED.

For the Second Time He Takes the Oath as Chief Executive of Utah, a Capacity in Which He Has Served for Five Years—Other Official Ceremonies.

Amid a downpour of snow blinding in its density, Heber M. Wells was today inaugurated as the second time as Governor of the State of Utah. Perhaps some superstitious individuals would say that the atmospheric condition of the day augured ill for the new administration. But the former of the State who have seen their country and with in the pastured earth the thirty cattle that have wandered over the hills in search of sale, will consider the conditions under which Governor Wells was inaugurated as propitious in the extreme.

The ceremonies took place in the Hall of Representatives in the city and county building, and by 10 o'clock this morning a large crowd was clamoring for admittance at the door of the hall. Just outside of the door Heber's hand was being held up by the people who were filling into the room. There was nothing very pretentious in the decorations of the room; simplicity marked every feature of the proceedings which were quite brief. National flags were hung upon the walls, and above the speaker's stand hung a large fan of the original copy of the Declaration of Independence, imbedded in the graceful folds of the national colors.

At 11:40 Governor Wells and party marched into the hall to the strains of "The Star-Spangled Banner." The Governor's party, composed especially for the inauguration ceremonies.

The stand was occupied by Governor Wells, Chief Justice Blair, Associate Justices Haskin and Barker, Congressman Sutherland, Attorney General M. A. Breeden, Secretary of State Hammond, State Treasurer John De Grey, Auditor General, Mr. J. M. McKiver, Auditor of Public Instruction, A. C. Nelson, and Bishop Scammon.

General John C. Cannon was master of ceremonies and, after a few words, he introduced the Governor. The Governor then took the oath of office, and after a few words, he introduced the Governor. The Governor then took the oath of office, and after a few words, he introduced the Governor.

The Governor then took the oath of office, and after a few words, he introduced the Governor. The Governor then took the oath of office, and after a few words, he introduced the Governor.

The Governor then took the oath of office, and after a few words, he introduced the Governor. The Governor then took the oath of office, and after a few words, he introduced the Governor.

The Governor then took the oath of office, and after a few words, he introduced the Governor. The Governor then took the oath of office, and after a few words, he introduced the Governor.

The Governor then took the oath of office, and after a few words, he introduced the Governor. The Governor then took the oath of office, and after a few words, he introduced the Governor.

The Governor then took the oath of office, and after a few words, he introduced the Governor. The Governor then took the oath of office, and after a few words, he introduced the Governor.

The Governor then took the oath of office, and after a few words, he introduced the Governor. The Governor then took the oath of office, and after a few words, he introduced the Governor.

The Governor then took the oath of office, and after a few words, he introduced the Governor. The Governor then took the oath of office, and after a few words, he introduced the Governor.

The Governor then took the oath of office, and after a few words, he introduced the Governor. The Governor then took the oath of office, and after a few words, he introduced the Governor.

The Governor then took the oath of office, and after a few words, he introduced the Governor. The Governor then took the oath of office, and after a few words, he introduced the Governor.

The Governor then took the oath of office, and after a few words, he introduced the Governor. The Governor then took the oath of office, and after a few words, he introduced the Governor.

The Governor then took the oath of office, and after a few words, he introduced the Governor. The Governor then took the oath of office, and after a few words, he introduced the Governor.

The Governor then took the oath of office, and after a few words, he introduced the Governor. The Governor then took the oath of office, and after a few words, he introduced the Governor.

The Governor then took the oath of office, and after a few words, he introduced the Governor. The Governor then took the oath of office, and after a few words, he introduced the Governor.

The Governor then took the oath of office, and after a few words, he introduced the Governor. The Governor then took the oath of office, and after a few words, he introduced the Governor.

The Governor then took the oath of office, and after a few words, he introduced the Governor. The Governor then took the oath of office, and after a few words, he introduced the Governor.

The Governor then took the oath of office, and after a few words, he introduced the Governor. The Governor then took the oath of office, and after a few words, he introduced the Governor.

The Governor then took the oath of office, and after a few words, he introduced the Governor. The Governor then took the oath of office, and after a few words, he introduced the Governor.

The Governor then took the oath of office, and after a few words, he introduced the Governor. The Governor then took the oath of office, and after a few words, he introduced the Governor.

The Governor then took the oath of office, and after a few words, he introduced the Governor. The Governor then took the oath of office, and after a few words, he introduced the Governor.

The Governor then took the oath of office, and after a few words, he introduced the Governor. The Governor then took the oath of office, and after a few words, he introduced the Governor.

The Governor then took the oath of office, and after a few words, he introduced the Governor. The Governor then took the oath of office, and after a few words, he introduced the Governor.

The Governor then took the oath of office, and after a few words, he introduced the Governor. The Governor then took the oath of office, and after a few words, he introduced the Governor.

The Governor then took the oath of office, and after a few words, he introduced the Governor. The Governor then took the oath of office, and after a few words, he introduced the Governor.

The Governor then took the oath of office, and after a few words, he introduced the Governor. The Governor then took the oath of office, and after a few words, he introduced the Governor.

The Governor then took the oath of office, and after a few words, he introduced the Governor. The Governor then took the oath of office, and after a few words, he introduced the Governor.

The Governor then took the oath of office, and after a few words, he introduced the Governor. The Governor then took the oath of office, and after a few words, he introduced the Governor.

The Governor then took the oath of office, and after a few words, he introduced the Governor. The Governor then took the oath of office, and after a few words, he introduced the Governor.

The Governor then took the oath of office, and after a few words, he introduced the Governor. The Governor then took the oath of office, and after a few words, he introduced the Governor.

The Governor then took the oath of office, and after a few words, he introduced the Governor. The Governor then took the oath of office, and after a few words, he introduced the Governor.